

AFTERTASTE

GATHER/RELEASE

PHOTOGRAPHS BY MELANIE ROSS

At Long Island's Garden of Eve Farm, Chris Walbrecht puts son Forrest to work gathering eggs from the nesting boxes and releasing beneficial insects into a patch of cruciferous vegetables. The family's weekly harvest goes to the McCarren Park Greenmarket, to the homes of Brooklyn-based CSA shareholders (including Melanie Ross, who shot these pictures at "her" farm), and to Kelly Geary's kitchen (see Sweet Deliverance, page 20).
